

Your Equine Science Center

- 1 Answers questions about proper horse care and farm management on the “Ask the Expert” feature on esc.rutgers.edu
- 2 Provides two core courses for adjunct students online and in the classroom
- 3 Offers an impartial forum for discussion and cooperation among equine-affiliated groups
- 4 Develops tests to ensure integrity in equestrian sport and makes recommendations for care of equine athletes
- 5 Educates youth about nutrition, the environment, and equine physiology on “Equine Science 4 Kids!”
- 6 Trains farmers to comply with New Jersey’s Animal Waste Management Rule
- 7 Informs policy decision makers and the public about the economic importance of the equine industry
- 8 Clears up myths and misconceptions about nontraditional breeds
- 9 Prepares advocates for leadership in equine and agriculture-based industries
- 10 Promotes responsible horse ownership practices on esc.rutgers.edu

Top 10 Ways

Rutgers Equine Science Center
Works for You and Your Horses

To learn more about the Equine Science Center or to make a donation, please call or visit us online.

848-932-9419 esc.rutgers.edu

Your Equine Science Center

- 1 Conducts research and makes recommendations for the care of aging and young horses
- 2 Studies natural food products for prevention or treatment of inflammation, stress and disease
- 3 Engages and challenges kids to learn the science of horses and about their role in the environment
- 4 Examines how exercise benefits horses of all ages
- 5 Documents the contributions of equine research to human medicine
- 6 Offers hands-on experience to future medical and veterinary professionals
- 7 Delivers useful, well-researched information via multimedia and Web technology
- 8 Evaluates new sources of feed and forage for horses
- 9 Documents the importance of the horse industry to agribusiness and the general public
- 10 Demonstrates environmental best management practices for horse farms

Top 10 Initiatives

of the
Rutgers Equine Science Center
to Ensure the Well-Being of Horses and the Equine Industry

*To learn more about the Equine Science Center
or to make a donation, please call or visit us online.*

848-932-9419 esc.rutgers.edu

Equine Science Center

Better Horse Care Through Research and Education